The CDM Bazaar web-portal allows carbon market buyers, sellers and service providers to exchange information on clean development mechanism (CDM) project opportunities.

CDM Bazaar has three main market sections plus a place for market-related announcements:

Sellers section

Here sellers post information about themselves and about CDM projects at all stages of development, from simple idea, to implementation, to issuance of certified emissions reductions (CERs).

Buyers section

Here buyers post information about themselves and their requirements/interests in particular project types.

Service providers section

Here service providers post information about themselves, their companies and details of the services or technologies they bring to the market.

Announcements

Post and find information on employment opportunities, events and publications, all strictly related to the carbon market.

What is the UNFCCC CDM Bazaar?
